McKenzie's desire not to renew his appointment at Cardston, after his present term, was acceded to. The Rev. Mr. Stephen's resignation necessitated the appointment of a new clerk, and Rev. G. H. Messrs. Herdman, Vetter, and McKenzie addressed the meeting. On Wednesday evening another public meeting was held at which the moderator addressed the audience on "Sabbath school work," the Rev. Mr. Spears on "Parents' duty to children," and Mr. Reese on "Sabbath school work and organization." These public meetings were very interesting and profitable to those who attended.

To-night the ladies of the congregation intend holding a social in honor of the visit of the delegates to Edmonton.

VISIT OF C. P. R. OFFICIALS.

On Monday last Mr. Kerr, general passenger agent, A. McNichol, general freight agent, Montreal, and Mr. Callaway, general passenger agent on the Soo line, came up on the train, and wired acting mayor Strang that they wished to meet the business men of the town on their arrival. At about 9 o'clock the officials arrived at the Alberta hotel and met in the parlor with the board of trade and other business men, and talked over matters of mutual interest. The visitors expressed their pleasure at the appearance of the country and said that while every point on the line received due consideration, special attention was given this district. In speaking of the bridge, they said that it was out of their department, and that they could say nothing about it.

When asked about a reduction in the freight rates to Revelstoke and other points this side of Vancouver, Mr. Kerr said that he had already decided to give a rate on grain of 60 cents per 100 lbs. to all points on their system in both East and West Kootenay, and wished to be informed on the return of Mr. Cameron if this was satisfactory.

Mr. McNichol said that he had fixed a one cent per mile rate for old country immigrants from Montreal to Edmonton, and that in winter the rate from Halifax would be the same as from Montreal in summer. In reply to Mr. McDougall, he said that he did not see how he could alter the 5 cent per mile rate on the C. & E. road, as the road had not paid sufficient to warrant it.

Mr. Callaway said that he had already arranged to send a number of well-to-do farmers from Ohio into Northern Alberta. The officials expressed themselves as being anxious to meet the wishes of the people of Edmonton so far as it was possible in their own interests to do so, and said they considered their interests and the interests of the business men here were identical. After expressing a desire to hear from Edmonton whenever the interests of this district required their special attention, the meeting terminated.

SUPREME COURT.

Mr. Justice Rouleau has given judgments as follows:

Pruden vs. Ducharme. Peter Pruden, of Naino, sued Antoine Ducharme, of Lac la Biche, for $1,500 lent in 1883, and interest since amounting together to $2,375. The loan was made under an agreement that if the money was not repaid with interest within three years, Ducharme was to give a clear title to a piece of land in the settlement of St. Boniface, Manitoba. The claim was rested both on the loan and on the agreement. The defences were: (1) That the claim for the repayment of the loan was barred by the limitation ordinance. (2) That Ducharme had in fact, in accordance with the agreement given a transfer of the land to Pruden; that although on Pruden's presenting the transfer for registration, it appeared that Ducharme had no title to the land yet in truth he was entitled to it, and had Pruden notified him of the state in which he found the title, Ducharme could have shown a good title, but instead of doing this, Pruden, without notifying Ducharme, settled his claim under the transfer with the adverse claimants. The judge held both defences to be good answers to the action, and to have been established by the evidence. He therefore gave judgment for the defendant, dismissing Pruden's action, but without costs, being of opinion that Ducharme had to some extent induced the litigation. Taylor, Q. C., for plaintiff, Beck, Q. C., for defendant.

Fitzgerald vs. McKenny. This was an action brought by William Fitzgerald, of St. Albert, against H. W. McKenny, of St. Albert. The judge's judgment is as follows:

The plaintiff sues the defendant for $500 damages, being the amount claimed by his statement of claim for false arrest and imprisonment and for malicious prosecution.

It appears that the plaintiff was in possession of a certain order or "bon" which reads as follows: "Good to W. Fitzgerald for twenty-four dollars and twenty cents in goods at my store only. ($24.20)." (Signed) "H. W. McKENNY."

And that on the 21st October, 1894, he got goods from the defendant's store for the amount of $37.50. It is of evidence that more than that amount was still due to the plaintiff by the defendant on said order or bon; but because the plaintiff refused to produce the said order or bon, the defendant ordered the said plaintiff to be arrested as a thief.

Was it theft or was it not?

The definition of that crime is the "act of fraudulently and without color of right taking, or fraudulently and without color of right converting to the use of any person, anything capable of being stolen, with intent to deprive the owner temporarily or absolutely of such thing or of such property or interest." Crankshaw at page 273 gives an illustration which I think may be applied to this case: "If A. having done work upon an article, returns it to B., the owner, and then A. disputes arising between them as to the price to be paid for the work, A. takes and carries off the article against B.'s will, honestly intending to hold it as security for the amount which is alleged to be due to him, this is not theft, although in fact it turned out that there was nothing due to him."

In this case there was no contention that the defendant did not owe the amount of the goods to the plaintiff, but because he had not the "bon" to produce, or at least he believed he had not, the defendant got him arrested for theft. I fail to see under what definition or what law the plaintiff can be accused of such a crime. By the very words of his "bon" or order, the plaintiff was obliged to take goods at the defendant's store only, for the amount thereof; and when he attempts to take the goods, he is arrested as a common thief. It is incredible that a man in his common sense should be guilty of such outrageous conduct. There is no doubt according to the evidence that the defendant ordered Constable Casault to arrest the plaintiff and imprison him. Was that imprisonment justified? There is no doubt it was not. So the defendant is answerable in the eyes of the law for his unjustifiable act. Everyone is answerable for specifically directing the arrest or imprisonment of another, and if the arrest was unlawful, he is liable to an action. (Pollock on Torts 148) Auston vs. Dowling 39 L. J. Q. B. 299.

Under the evidence and the law the arrest in this case was unjustifiable and therefore the defendant is condemned to pay the sum of $25 damages to the plaintiff and a further lump sum of $50 for his costs; disbursements and witness fees not included.

Beck, Q. C., for plaintiff, Taylor, Q. C., for defendant.

THE PREMIER'S RECEPTION AT ST. ALBERT.

Preparations had been made on Tuesday at St. Albert, for the reception of Sir McKenzie Bowell, Prime Minister of Canada, the Honorable T. M. Daly, Minister of the Interior, and Hayter Reed, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, and at about 5 o'clock the distinguished visitors arrived at the Episcopal Palace, St. Albert. The Very Rev. Father Leduc, O. M. S. V. G., addressed the Hon. Sir McKenzie Bowell as follows: To the Right Honorable Sir McKenzie Bowell, K. C. M. G., Prime Minister of Canada.

Right Honorable Sir: In behalf of His Lordship, Bishop Grandin, now absent, and in behalf of the Roman Catholic clergy of St. Albert I wish you welcome.

Yes, we are proud and happy to receive you to-day with the Honorable T. M. Daly, Minister of Interior, and his esteemed deputy in the department of Indian Affairs.

The inhabitants of this place will address you in a few moments. They will tell you their firm belief in the very plain, expressive and noble declarations made by yourself and your colleagues at the last session of parliament. After such declarations we cannot doubt that you firmly and energetically intend to decide this vital school question according to both right and justice; this decision will be to the glory of your government and history will proclaim to future generations by whom justice was so nobly given to the Catholic minority of Manitoba and the Northwest Territories.

Now, Right Honorable Sir, deign to look around and see that you are surrounded by the joyful pupils of St. Albert.

The government has reason to be proud of this and other similar institutions supported by it. Industrial and boarding schools for the Indians are certainly the best means of civilization. The benefits derived from them and already obtained are immense and tangible. The proof of this you have witnessed at the late Territorial exhibition in Regina.

The children of these schools have greatly contributed to its success by their excellent behavior and good manners, by their music band, and more especially by the very interesting and so numerous exhibits, work of their own hands, which they were so happy to put before a chosen public.

Thank you, Sir McKenzie Bowell, thanks also to the Honorable T. M. Daly our worthy minister of interior, thanks to Mr. Reed for the interest you take in all that concerns the welfare of these institutions.

May these Industrial and boarding schools be henceforth able to receive all the poor Indian children. May the governments always understand that its true interests are in the establishment and support of these schools whereby the Indians will disappear without being destroyed. Yes they will disappear with all due honor to the government, to the country and to Christian civilization; because in ceasing to be wild Indians, they will become men as truly christianized and civilized as ourselves.

Once more, honorable gentlemen, welcome and thanks for your kind and cordial visit to St. Albert.

H. LEDUC, O. M. S. V. G.,
Vicar General.

St. Albert, Aug. 27th, 1895.

G. W. Gairdner then read the following address:

To Sir McKenzie Bowell, K. C. M. G., Prime Minister of Canada:

Sir.—It is both an honor and a pleasure for me to bid you welcome in the name of the people of Saint Albert.

You, Sir, are the first Prime Minister of Canada who has visited this part of the country, and I am confident that in your travels over nearly the whole of Canada, you have seen no district so well worth visiting as this.

Not to speak of the products of the earth brought forth by skilled labor, and of which you have already seen samples at Regina, this district is also famous as containing very large coal fields and petroleum springs, and Saint Albert is the nearest business centre to the newly found mica and gold-bearing quartz at the Jasper House, as well as the rich bars of the Pembina and Athabasca rivers. We have also in this district a large area of uncultivated land fit for cultivation, and which only awaits Government survey to make it ready for settlers. Our northern forests, too, are practically inexhaustible, the fisheries of our great lakes surpass any in Canada, the reindeer and fur-bearing animals seem to be on the increase, and certainly are a source of immense profit to the Dominion.

But, Sir, in order to develop the industries of this district, as well as of the portion of Canada to the north of us, one thing is indispensable, and that is railway communication. No local industry can succeed, no settlers will dare to immigrate, and the present farmers can barely live for the want of a market for their produce. Our natural market lies to the west and north of us. There were no Northwest Territories till the C. P. R. was built, and the portion of Canada north of the Saskatchewan can never thrive till the railway opens out the new country beyond us.

A wagon road to the Peace River is of the utmost importance. Not only does the favorable light in which that country is shown by actual settlers warrant such an outlay on the part of the Government, but that public work would be a God-send to the poorer portion of this community.

We regret to learn that it is the intention of your government to reduce the force of N. W. M. P. We who have lived for years in the country know their value and the needs we have of them. During the outbreak in 1885 they did men's work, and we are sorry that those members who were then enrolled have as yet received no substantial recognition of their services from the Dominion government. We trust that your government will remember that the N. W. M. P. are the only protection we have against law breakers.

Saint Albert, however, besides being a business centre, is also the centre of a very strong organization. It is the religious capital of the Northwest Territories and the residence of our venerated spiritual leader and guide, His Lordship Bishop Grandin. However much the members of this community may differ in race or politics, however much jealousies or rivalries may creep up in our ordinary every day of business, there is one point on which we all agree. We agree to uphold the clergy of Canada in trying to obtain for us and our children, that religious liberty to which we have a right, by every constitutional means in our power, and although disappointed that your government has not seen its way to grant remedial legislation to the people of Manitoba, and through them to us, still we have every confidence in your plighted word, and will calmly await its fulfilment.

Mr. Daly, who accompanies you, we have already had the pleasure of meeting here. He has shown kindness to many of those present and we looked forward to his visit with great pleasure.

We hope Sir, that this is only the first of many similar visits on your part, and that you may long remember the little village of Saint Albert, as the place where you received, if not as ostentatious, at least as hearty a welcome as any place in Canada.

G. W. GAIRDNER,
Secretary Reception Committee.
St. Albert, Aug. 27, '95.

In reply to the addresses of welcome presented to him by the Rev. Father Leduc and by the reception committee Sir McKenzie said: I am more than pleased with these addresses of welcome which you have presented to me and my friend and colleague in the government. To say that I am surprised at what I see is but to faintly express my feelings. I am amazed at the degree of advancement which I see in every way in this great country. I remember reading of Edmonton as a boy, and as a man to have read of the Hudson's Bay Company and its fur trade, but I was not prepared to find the conditions here developing into eastern civilization and comfort. When my friend, Mr. Daly, told me about his visit here of a couple years ago, I was slow to believe all he said. I thought the honorable gentleman was romancing, and on the demand of that gentleman for additional grants of money to conduct our Indian department, industrial and boarding schools, we thought he was over-zealous, was extravagant and in short was wasting the public money. But now when I see your beautiful industrial schools and men and women devoting their lives to the purpose of civilizing, christianizing and educating the wild man of this country from hunters and fishermen into a state equal to our own, as self-reliant, self-supporting and law-abiding citizens of Canada, then, I feel that I would be willing to expend twice the sums now spent in such a great cause. Touching upon the school question, and turning towards the Rev. Father Leduc, and addressing himself more particularly to him, Sir McKenzie said: And, Rev. Sir, though not of your creed, though differing from you in my religious belief, I am a believer in the greatest freedom of thought to all men, and while I claim the right to my own belief I insist that all men and people are fully entitled to the same rights, and that such rights must be secured to all by any good government, and in reference to the school question I am bound to tell you, that the policy of my government as laid down will be adhered to and faithfully carried out let the consequences be what they may.

In reply to the address of the reception committee Mr. Bowell said: I have often heard of St. Albert and have seen a portion of your district to-day. I have always thought the accounts I heard of its capabilities were exaggerations but after what I have seen to-day my opinion is changed. Mr. Daly will reply to the question relating to his department, but I hope the government will be able shortly to do something towards the opening up of the country north and west of this place. The policy of the government and of the conservative party is progressive, and railway and public improvements have been and will be built as fast as they are required and the finances of the country will warrant the expenditure.

Mr. Daly said he noticed a great improvement in this part of the country since his last visit. He saw more improved farms, more land under cultivation and better crops. He said the Dominion had felt the financial depression that has been general all over the world, but not to so great an extent as most other countries. The government at the present time had not the money to spare for public improvements except where absolutely necessary, but hoped that the abundant crops of the Dominion would make better times and bring more revenue and then they would be able to expend more money in improvements and development of the country. He thanked the clergy and public for the cordial reception they had given them and hoped soon to return to St. Albert again.

After the reception at the palace, the party adjourned to the school buildings, where a reception had been prepared for them by the children. The hall was a scene of festive beauty as it glowed with mottoes and floral decorations. The children of the industrial school and the day scholars to the number of 160 thronged the hall. The band of the industrial school, under the leadership of Mr. Joseph Varin, discoursed some choice music as the distinguished guests, accompanied by Very Rev. Father Leduc, V. G., and the clergy of St. Albert, took seats on the raised platform, where they were surrounded by an appreciative audience.

The following is the programme of the reception: School choir, "Welcome to our Fair North-West"; an acrostic, "Welcome," by the children of the industrial school, Willie Carey, John Callioux, Felix Callioux, Alice Boucher, Adelaide Joachim, Margaret Delorme, Christine Callioux; school choir, "The Maple Leaf"; address, Felix Callioux; school choir, "Bring the flowers fresh and sweet from prairie bowers"; presentation of flowers; a poetical recitation by six of the convent pupils, Misses L. Monte, Jane Maloney, Maud McKenney, Maggie O'Neill, May Maloney, Emey Maloney. These little girls were dressed in white. Each wore on her shoulder a maple leaf surmounted with a gold letter, all of which formed the name of "Bowell."

The following is the recitation which was carefully prepared and perfectly rendered by the grateful pupils of St. Albert school:

I wear on my shoulder the letter B,
That all its greatness and beauty may see;
It stands for a name Canadians revere,
A name that is loved and cherished here.
My BOUQUET to Canada's Premier will say
Joy, health and happiness now and for aye,
Eager and blossoming will we sing
For our country and Sir McKenzie Bowell.

I am proud and happy to take a part
In this festive scene where young hearts
Throb with delight, with joyous affection,
As we tender to you this loyal reception,
Take from the young hearts of the fair North-West
This heartfelt OFFERING the warmest and best
Others may follow but none can excel
Our affection for Sir McKenzie Bowell.

Alberta welcomes you with wild delight,
Her red prairies, clad with flowers bright,
Whisper WELCOME, and welcomed may you be
By every flower on this great inland sea.
The St. Albert chimera, Hark! how sweet they ring,
The woods re-echo and merrily sing
The joyous greeting they so love to tell
I welcome to Sir McKenzie Bowell.

I come, sir, EDUCATION is my name,
My cause by you upheld enhances your fame,
And I come, though crushed, to lay at your feet
Gratitude's tribute. The duty is sweet.
In this noble cause, so unjustly torn,
You upheld our rights through the storm.
May your efforts be crowned and victory swell
The name and fame of Sir McKenzie Bowell.

The gratitude and thanks my sister has given
Are gifts which spring most surely from heaven.
May their beauty and perfume cheer your way
And may the love that dwells in your heart
May patriotism and justice swell the power
In you invested, until hour by hour
Truth and LOVE and LOYALTY Canada dwell
And crown the name of McKenzie Bowell.

As each little flower has well done its part,
May the language be pleasing to your great heart;
And the souvenir, as a joy unexpressed,
Live forever in your noble breast.
We little children of the far famed West,
Offer you these flowers the choicest and best,
Their beautiful blossoms a secret foretell
That the LOVE we bear Sir McKenzie Bowell.

In reply Sir McKenzie said: This kind welcome of the industrial school children touches me more than I can tell you. The mottoes, the portrait of our gracious sovereign lady, the Queen, and other evidences of your loyalty, intelligence and good will, are not lost upon me, and I assure you, children, that you have reason to be grateful to these kind ladies, the good Sisters of Charity, for all that they are doing for you. You will, one day as men and women, take our places of to-day, and I trust that you will lay to heart the good lessons here impressed upon your youth. As for me what more can I say? I am more than satisfied, not to say astonished at what I see. I thank you most heartily for your most cordial reception of myself and my friend and colleague, the Honorable T. M. Daly, and it is but your due, and from me only just that I should tell you that without wishing to make insidious comparisons, especially between schools, this reception surpasses any that I have ever received.

R. J. McChesney, foreman, and James Hooper, city editor, of the Nor'-Wester, have bought out the Portage la Prairie Review. With their combined skill they should be able to turn out a good sheet.

Eastern dispatches say: Rumors to contrary notwithstanding Patterson is certainly preparing to take up his abode in Winnipeg within the next few weeks. Arrangements have been made whereby Sir C. H. Tupper will take the house at present occupied by the prospective lieutenant governor of Manitoba, whether by purchase or upon rental has not transpired, but the Pattersons are certainly preparing for an early departure and Sir Chas. Hibbert's present house is to let.

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY.

To meet with the requirements of their increasing trade the Hudson's Bay company are carrying on, or have already completed this year, several important buildings. In Winnipeg a large addition is being made to the already massive pile of buildings that stand at the corner of Main and York streets. In the rear of the block is being erected a warehouse of the same character and description as the present one on York street. This will make the block a continuous one from Main street to Fort street, the largest business building and the most complete of its kind in the city. It is intended, principally for the handling and packing of goods for other points, and is of stone and brick, four stories in height, corresponding in detail with the remainder of the structure.

At Portage la Prairie, the wooden building that for many years has done duty as the company's store, is being replaced by a stone and brick building, two stories in height, with plate glass fronts, measuring 70x50. This building is on the best part of Saskatchewan avenue, the principal business portion of the town. The old store has been removed to a vacant lot, somewhat to the westward, and business is still being carried on there pending the completion of the new buildings.

Calgary has many fine blocks, but with the addition that the Hudson's Bay company is now making, it will be among the finest in town. The present store is being duplicated. This means the construction of a building of 50 feet frontage on Stephen ave. in the very centre of the business buildings of this growing and important town. The Calgary store, than which there are few more beautiful and suitable for buildings, is being used, and when completed the Hudson's Bay company's store will be an ornament to this progressive place.

Further west at Kamloops a new store has been completed. The company's old property lies in the extreme western portion of the town, and to meet the necessities of business they have moved to the more business part of the town, and have just completed a brick and stone store, two stories high, which is in keeping with the character of the other buildings of this western city, and is well situated for business purposes.

At Vancouver, in addition to the fine general store, which stands on Granville street, opposite the Hotel Vancouver, the Hudson's Bay company now have a large and commodious warehouse on Water street, which is used for the storage of their own goods, and for general storage and warehousing purposes. It is a four story stone and brick building, 80x112, which forms one of the most convenient warehouses the company possesses, and the best of its kind in Vancouver. It is adjacent to the railway and the principal wharves and a spur railway having been run up to it, it is extremely suitable for the handling of a wholesale stock and the storage of goods.

To return eastward, one finds at Rat Portage another new building recently completed, an extension to the existing store. The requirements of this beautiful watering place are annually increasing and to keep pace with the times the Hudson's Bay company have added to the former store a building of stone, two stories high.

The unfortunate fire at Prince Albert last winter, whereby the company's mill and elevator, just renovated and improved, were completely destroyed, has, it is pleasant to observe, not had the effect of making the company faint-hearted. It was a loss, much to be regretted, but the town of Prince Albert is the gainer thereby. In place of wooden buildings, always more or less a source of danger from fire, when used for milling purposes, there is now being put up a solid brick building on stone foundation, fitted with the latest and most improved modern machinery, lighted by electricity and heated by steam. It is here most of the flour for the inland posts is made. A valuable and important building to the farming interests of that district, and the hope of the community is that no accident may befall it as has happened to its two predecessors.

At Edmonton in addition to the old historic fort buildings, which are still used as a depot for storage and forwarding of the large outfits and valuable returns in connection with their vast northern trade, and for the purpose of their Indian and important fur trade, the company, fully recognizing the importance of Edmonton as a business centre and as a market for raw furs, have, with the same enterprise shown in the management of their business at other points, erected on the principal street a commodious store which is stocked with articles of the finest description and fitted with modern improvements.

At the Fort Garry mills at Winnipeg, during the past season, much has been done to meet the requirements of modern milling. The building has been placed upon a stone foundation, and much of the machinery has been changed for the most modern and most improved, and the mill, while by no means as large as many others, is a complete institution.

It is encouraging to the average settler, merchant or resident of the Northwest to see that this vast and important trading organization is thus showing its faith in the future of this country. The buildings are all plain and substantial, but they meet the requirements of the development of the trade of the vast Northwest. The Hudson's Bay company is thus certainly pursuing a progressive, yet cautious policy, and one which cannot fail to result in good to the country and to the company.—Com.

INNISFAIR.

We are glad that the weather has cleared and become much warmer and more pleasant. The chief benefit from this, of course, is that the crops will now get a chance not only to get thoroughly ripe, but also to remain in good order when cut. A good deal of harvesting will be done next week, if the weather keeps favorable. The danger from frost and continued rain having passed away for the time, our farmers are feeling in better spirits and looking on the future with a less gloomy eye than at any time during the previous month.

Our threshers are preparing for the harvest. Messrs. Duff and Wilson and L. M. Sage have both brought in new outfits, each consisting of steamer and separator, which ought to clean up the crop here in short order.

Mr. West has now his main building in position and the others are falling into line as rapidly as possible. He opened up again last week, and with his usual enterprise, is preparing to handle the crop and other produce of the country in any quantity.

Mr. Brown, the cattle buyer, spent last week in this vicinity purchasing about 160 head of prime young steers at fair prices. These sales and the large amount of grain which we hope to harvest, ought to loosen up financial matters in the settlement to a considerable extent.

His Lordship, the Bishop of Calgary and Saskatchewan, came up on Thursday's train and held service and holy communion during the forenoon of the following day. He returned to Calgary on Friday.

The hunting party returned last week. Mr. Douglas was some days before the others, having ridden in. They all looked the better of their trip and seem to have had a good time, though there was not very much sport to be had.

J. A. Simpson, M. L. A., went to Regina on Tuesday to attend the meeting of the assembly.

W. B. Osborn returned from Calgary on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Geary, Sr., and Mrs. Geary, Jr., and infant arrived from Vancouver on Thursday's train. Mr. Geary, Jr., has been here for a fortnight past making arrangements to open a store as a druggist and stationer. His father will likely engage in ranching. They are at present the guests of Mr. Howard, Sr., a relative of the family.

The Rev. Mr. Boyd, of Ohio, conducted service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday last. The rev. gentleman is a son of Mrs. Boyd, who has been a respected inhabitant of Morley and of Innisfail for a number of years. The Rev. Mr. Spear conducted the evening service. There was a large attendance both morning and evening. The Rev. Mr. Wooden conducted service in the evening in the English church.

Mr. Falconer, fireman on the C. & E. railway, spent a few days last week with Mr. David Sinclair, of the Little Red Deer.

R. Page went to Calgary on Friday's train.

We understand Messrs. George and John Brewster are charged with appropriating and branding a number of cattle belonging to Mr. R. Page. Mr. John Brewster appeared before Inspector Snyder, J. P., at Red Deer last week and was committed for trial at the supreme court in October next. Mr. George Brewster did not appear. The outcome of the case is awaited with interest, as all the parties are well known here.

THE SPEAKER.

The Northwest assembly was opened in due form on Thursday last by the election of a member to succeed Mr. Ross in the speaker's chair. It was supposed by many that Mr. Sutherland, the late deputy speaker, would have been the man chosen. It seems, however, that Mr. Betts, the member for Prince Albert East, was the choice of the house. The new speaker has been in the house since 1887 when he was elected for Prince Albert, and is a keen business man and very ready in debate. Mr. Betts was a leading member of the opposition in the assembly and will be remembered as one of Dr. Brett's colleagues in the famous minority government. In the speaker's chair he will no doubt cultivate the dignity which is of necessity associated with that high position.

IMMIGRATION.

It is generally reported that there will be a large emigration to the North-West Territories from the United States next season, mostly by the agricultural classes. Let them come and they will find room for thousands of that class of settlers, and a country well adapted for their calling. The abundant crops of this season will be a great advertisement of the fertility of the soil in this country, and we have no doubt will be the means of inducing many who are looking for a home to come in. Not only is our country greatly superior to many other places from an agricultural point of view, but people from over the border who come to see us will find us to be a peaceable and law-abiding community, among whom pistol shooting is of very rare occurrence and lynch law is unknown. We are a happy and contented people and totally free from many of the disturbing elements that cause so much friction in the social government of the United States.

BEAVER LAKE (EAST).

Harvesting began on the 19th, and is now in full swing. The crops are good as a whole, and there will be a heavy yield in some cases.

The lake is a good deal lower than at this time last year, owing to an early spring and a light rainfall during the summer.

Two new self-binders have been brought into the settlement this year, one by H. Bradley, the other by Messrs. Proctor and Verch. They will likely have plenty of work to do.

Miss Hattie McCauley, a pupil of Beaver lake public school, wrote for a third class certificate at Edmonton in July, and was the only successful candidate of all who tried there. Duncan McCallum of the same school passed the entrance examination held in June.

A fall show is to be held here this year. The date fixed is October 5th. Mr. Kildahl is the prime mover in the matter. It is to be hoped that all will try and make it a success. Prizes will be given for cattle, horses, grain, etc.

METEOROLOGICAL.

The following temperatures are reported from the Dominion government observatory, Edmonton, for the dates given:

	Max.	Min.
Monday, 2,	66
Tuesday, 3,	54	41
Wednesday, 4,	56	36
Thursday, 5,		33

Barometer reduced to sea level 29.945.
Rainfall 0.18 of an inch.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The first session of the third legislative assembly of the Northwest Territories opened last Thursday. There was a large attendance of members present. The speech from the throne delivered by His Honor Charles Herbert Mackintosh, the lieutenant governor, was quite lengthy. He began by referring to the excellent character of the representatives returned to the house and also referred to the death of the late Sir John Thompson. He mentioned the necessity of a re-organization of the magistracy of the Territories and referred to the bountiful crop, the prospects of higher prices for grain and the late reductions in freight rates on butter, cheese, &c., by the C. P. R. In his mention of the Territorial exhibition, he said, "The entries in the various classes were double the number anticipated, every provisional district manifesting patriotic interest in the enterprise. He spoke of the visit of the governor general to the fair accompanied by the premier and Hon. T.M. Daly, and took occasion to thank the many agricultural societies which assisted in making the exhibition the success that it was. He spoke of the gratifying increase of the population as shown by the census recently taken by the N. W. M. P., and of the large increase in the number of schools, and referred to the attractions possessed by a community out of debt for those looking for homes, and advised the assembly to avoid local taxation as much as possible and to be careful as to discounting the future. He spoke of improvement in the present method of expending money on roads and bridges, hoped that some remedy would soon be supplied for the deaf mutes of the Territories, and mentioned the necessity of settlers guarding against prairie fires, especially in view of the reduction in the police force. He referred to the opening of the hospital at Medicine Hat, and spoke of the similar institutions at Calgary, Lethbridge and Edmonton," and mentioned his visit to Prince Albert and Edmonton and said the same progress noticeable at other points was significantly emphasized here. The want of a proper river crossing at Edmonton was a source of great irritation as well as inconvenience not only to the town, but to the settlers in surrounding districts. He spoke of the coal oil test now being made at the Athabasca Landing and mentioned the almost total absence of any national banner over the school houses during his tour through the Northwest and suggested the advisability of utilizing the flags purchased for the Territorial exhibition for that purpose.

The Free Press of August 29th. makes the following mention of the death of the father of Mrs. Frank Oliver of the Bulletin. "There passed away at Plympton yesterday Thomas Dunlop, one of the pioneer Ontario settlers in this province. Mr. Dunlop was a Canadian by birth, having first seen the light at South Gower, Grenville county, Ont., in 1825, and was therefore in his seventy-first year at the time of his death. In 1871 Mr. Dunlop with his family migrated to Manitoba, taking up his residence for a few years in Winnipeg, and afterwards settling at Prairie Grove. He always took a deep interest in public affairs, having held various positions of trust in the province and for a short term as alderman in this city. He leaves a wife, five daughters and three sons to mourn his loss. Mr. Dunlop's illness was of the briefest character, the deceased having suddenly expired while sitting in a chair. The funeral will take place on Friday at Prairie Grove cemetery. Mr. Alex. Dunlop, of the Free Press, is a son of the late Mr. Dunlop.

Hamilton Spectator (Con.): If Westmoreland was opened for the purpose of showing that the Antigonish election did not correctly show the opinion of the down-easters on the Manitoba school question, it has been a lamentable failure. The government has retained the seat; but has lost 1,400 or 1,500 of the majority it had last general election. Westmoreland has a population of 41,477, of which 17,047 are Roman Catholics. The vote on Saturday was small. What do all these things indicate? Has the National Policy suddenly become unpopular in Westmoreland? We think not. It must be that the Manitoba question had an influence upon the result, and if that influence resulted in reducing the Conservative majority from 2,148 to 700, it must be that Sir Charles Herbert Tupper has sadly mistaken the men down by the sea. The result of the Westmoreland election cannot be encouraging to Sir Mackenzie Bowell. Will he accept the verdict of Vercheres, Antigonish and Westmoreland, and abandon his attempt to coerce Manitoba or will he go on in spite of all warnings?

MINING IN ALASKA.

The authentic word from the placer camps on the upper Yukon comes by the steamer Excelsior from St. Michael's. The steamer P. B. Weare, from Fort Cudahy, 1,600 miles up the river, and known also as Forty Mile camp, had arrived a week before with several passengers for the South. Among those who came down the river this spring is Dr. E. O. Crewe of San Francisco, who has been in the mines about a year and a half. He wintered last year at St. Michael's, and went up the river to Sixty Mile camp this spring. As an evidence that there is gold in the country Dr. Crewe has several large nuggets for exhibition, the largest of which is worth $82. Notwithstanding this, Dr. Crewe says the Yukon is a good country to stay away from now. It is simply overrun with men. Wages are $10 a day, as they have been in the past, but there are fifteen men for every such job. The rush this summer has been unprecedented. The large body of miners—400 to 500—who went in by way of Juneau and Chilkat pass, arrived at the camps before the steamer got up the river, and all left at once for the various placers. When the steamer arrived all had gone.

A new placer camp named Glacier creek was struck last fall, and prospects well. The prospects for all the camps are good, though it was too early when he left to get at the actual figures. If the summer's prospecting turns out well, Dr. Crewe thinks that from 1,000 to 1,500 men will winter on the river this year, but if they do not strike it, the majority will try to get out of the country. There are already a lot of men getting out. Unless they get money, they will have to get out or starve. Not another dollar of credit can be got in the Yukon country. Glacier creek is even a better camp than Miller creek, which had been the banner strike up to last year. Glacier creek is a branch of Sixty Mile creek and the camp of that name is but four or five miles from Miller creek camp. To reach both camps from Fort Cudahy there is a tow up Forty-Mile creek by canoe and a portage of several miles across country.

Regarding the shortness of provisions last winter, he says there was enough to last through, but that is all that can be said of it. The greatest shortage came from a scarcity of game in the fall. In fact there was no wild meat to be had till after Christmas.

The government organs confirm the report that Patterson will be sworn in next week. Bowell, Schultz & Co. have failed to get a settlement of the school question with Greenway, and now Patterson, Haggart and Montague will make an effort to do so. This wing of the cabinet never had any confidence in Bowell. Once Patterson reaches Government House, Haggart and Montague will make a tour of Manitoba and the Northwest. They will be accompanied by Bob Birmingham, Tory organizer for the province of Ontario. If possible, they will leave about the end of next week. Some go so far as to say they will meet Bowell and Daly somewhere in Manitoba, and that Greenway will, as if it were by accident, be at the same place, and that a conference will take place over the whole question. They are satisfied that Greenway will just do what they want.—Winnipeg Tribune.
